

The Ageing Research Unit at the Centre for Mental Health Research is proud to host Psychology and Ageing: Clinical and Research Perspectives, an event of the Australian Psychological Society.

The colloquium aims to bring together clinicians, students and academic researchers from relevant fields to participate in information sharing in psychology and ageing.

*PD points application pending

PSYCHOLOGY AND AGEING: CLINICAL AND RESEARCH PERSPECTIVES

Australian Psychological Society
Psychology and Ageing Interest Group

DATE: Friday 19th March 2004

VENUE: Henderson Conference Room, Centre for Mental Health Research Bldg 63, ANU).

TIME: 9am - 12noon

COST: $10 (students and non-workers $5)

PROGRAM

Mike Bird & Annaliese Blaire: Clinical psychology with old adults

Helen Christensen : Psychological aspects of exercise in older adults

Karen Mather: What is APOE & how relevant is it to cognitive ageing and late onset Alzheimer's ?

Jerome Maller: Why and how we use MRI scans in the context of dementia

Kaarin Anstey: Neuropsychological and visual factors that enable safe driving in older adults

RSVP: March 17 2004. For further information contact:
Janine Walker T. 61253079 E. Janine.Walker@anu.edu.au or
Jerome Maller T. 61251030 E. Jerome.Maller@anu.edu.au